

Cleveland Arts Prize: Kathryn Karipides Scholarship in Modern Dance

PURPOSE:

The Kathryn Karipides Scholarship held by the Cleveland Arts Prize and administered through Case Western Reserve University's School of Graduate Studies, awards a graduate dance student a stipend to attend a summer Modern Dance program/workshop of their choice.

Learn more about Kathryn Karipides at the below link:

http://clevelandartsprize.org/awardees/kathryn_karipides.html

ELIGIBILITY:

Incoming students with acceptance into the CWRU MFA Dance program or students who have completed their first or second year of study in the MFA Dance program.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS:

Requirements include an essay describing planned program of study, brief bio, two letters of recommendation, undergraduate transcript if an incoming student, graduate transcript if a current student (a 3.5 GPA is required), and a completed application form. Note: recipients of the scholarship will be asked to submit a brief review of their summer study and a dance photograph at its completion.

AWARD AMOUNT:

This scholarship award is approximately $2000. The actual amount is dependent on spendable income from the endowment.

DEADLINE:

March 10, 2011

QUESTIONS:

Please contact Denise M. Douglas, Ph.D. at (216) 368-4390 or denise.douglas@case.edu if you have any questions regarding this scholarship.